POLICE NOT READY

Further Delay to Get Evidence that Frenchy Is the Ripper.

Inquest on the East River Hotel Tragedy Adjourned.

Discoveries as to the Accused Man's Recent Doings in South Brooklyn.

Police, Coroners, District-Attorneys and lawyers are at loggerheads gver the inquesi into the death of old Carrie Brown, who was found brutally butchered a le Jack the Ripper in the East River Hotel on the morning of April 24, and at 2 P. M. to-day it was announced that the inquest would not go on before Coroner Schultze this afternoon as announced

The inquest was originally set down for request of Assistant District-Attorney Landsay until to-day to give Inspector Byrnes further time to complete their case against Ameer Ben All, or "Frenchy No. 1," the suspect locked

So far as is known the principal evidence sgainst Ameer Ben All, or Frenchy, is the al eged trail of blood in the East River flotel, leading from the fatal room 31 to room 33, which was occupied by Frenchy the night of the murder, and the finding of blood stains on Frenchy's bed, clothing, under his finger-palls

Frenchy admits that he occupied room 33 on the night of the murder, but denies that ne saw Carrie Brown or was in room 31. He offers plansible explanations of the presence of blood on his clothing and under his finger-upon Frenchy the ownership of the knife beside old "Sanxespeare's" manufed body, nor have they to dite, as tir as can be learned, accounted for "C. Knico," the man who occupied room of with the murdered woman and with whom she was last seen alive.

These two important links in the chain of evolence against Frenchy are apparently lacking, and yet there are grounds for belief that the reticence of the police means that considerable knowledge on these two points has been suppressed by the chief of detectives.

MORE WITNESSES. It is known that the Oak street police have added two more witnesses in the case to those who have been locked up to the House of Detention since shortly after the murder was committed.

Miniter and "Dublin Mary" Bracce, who knew old "Shakespeare," and Eddie Fitzgerald, the boy who entered "C. Kulclo's" name on the East River Hotel register.

Among the first witnesses in the case, committed to the House of Delention by Coroner Schultze, was one "William Bekkie," and THE EVENING WORLD was the first to discover and announce that "Bekkie" was never taken to the liouse of Detention, and that his present wheresbouts are unknown to any one save the police.

All these facts only tend to strengthen the belief that the chief of the New York detectives has not told all that he believes about the case, and, indeed, no one has ever been able to get from him his official opinion that

"Frenchy No. 1" is the New York "Jack the Rip; er." FRENCHY'S HOME DISCOVERED.

Meanwhile Frenchy's lawyers have no been machine. They have discovered to their citent ass friends of his own pationality in Brookiyn, who can teally to his peaceful disposition, and through them they hope to learn other facts that will clearly establish his knocence.

lean other hots that will clearly establish his knocence.

Frenchy's friends live on Columbia etreet, near Hamilton evenue, South Brooklyn, and their names are Jenaili and Boxtes. Jenaili is an Arab and is married to an Irishwoman.
Bonit bis a Turk.

Frenchy, or Ameer Ben Alt, as his Turkish friends know him, is said to have lived with Jenail and his wife most of the time since he came to America.

Both say that he is a hard-working man, and while he sometimes drinks he was never known to be quarrelsome.

Jenaili goes so far in his expressions of confluence in Ben All as to say:

"If Ameer lien All kill woman, the big American President can take me and cut my throat."

A son of A. Dondero, of 174 Worth atreet, where Frenchy has also lived, says that he never saw him drunk and that he always paid his year. Another straw in the suspected Algerian's Adolater straw in the suspecies Algerian's favor is the fact that the police have not clearly proven that he was the same man as Frank sherick, the "Frenchy" wao was arrested for olling Mary Ann Lopez and who was the terror of all the women of New York's "Whitechapet," the Leggett Fire.

The absorbing topic this morning in the vicinity of West Broadway and Franklin street, was the disobedience of Fire Chief Bonner's orders for the discontinuance of elevated trains because of the danger of the fall at any moment of the granite blocks forming the cupola of Francis H. Casef Bonner is still firm in his belief that the overnanging granite blocks of the cupola are very unsafe and likely to tail at any moment, and perhaps cause a loss of life.

When seen by an Evening World reporter this morning Chief Bonner said that the wall was dangerous to life and property and consequently traffic should be suspended on the elevated road in front of it until made safe,
